E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target consists of two large things. These things are bright, high-up, immense, scenic, raw, and natural. They seem to be facing each other, or they are a part of each other (like a mountain is part of a mountain range). They are "hard as rock".

People seem small in relation to these two things. It is very cold in the target area, possibly even icy. It is also very bright and there is a glare that seems to be reflective (like off snow). It seems almost "picture perfect". There is a man-made aspect of the site, although the main site is natural. There is some form of energetics. There is also an "outdoor" feeling and a whooshing sound. AOL: Blue Ridge Mountains.
